

Englebrecht, Chu, Coleman and Martin receive AAA 2011 Outstanding Paper Award

RUSTON, La – Ted D. Englebrecht, Tony Chu, Fred Coleman and Rebecca Martin are recipients of the American Accounting Association’s Outstanding Paper Award for their article, “An Assessment of Patterns of Coauthorship for Academic Accountants Within Premier Journals Edited Outside the US: Evidence From 1995-2009.” This AAA award was presented to them in the form of a plaque and a $500 prize on April 8, 2011 at the 2011 Southeastern American Accounting Association regional meeting held in Destin, Florida.

Dr. Ted Englebrecht, holds the Harold J. Smolinski Eminent Scholar Chair in Accounting at Louisiana Tech University. He received his Ph.D. from the University of South Carolina and has been at Louisiana Tech in this role since 2001. Tony Chu, Fred Coleman and Rebecca Martin are doctoral students at Louisiana Tech University majoring in accounting.

The mission of the American Accounting Association is to promote worldwide excellence in accounting education and to serve as the premier forum for scholarly interchange in accounting.

For more information, please contact Debbie Van De Velde 318-257-3741 or debrav@latech.edu.